Harvard Business Impact Research indicates that only about 15% of people are sufficiently self-aware

Let us do it now

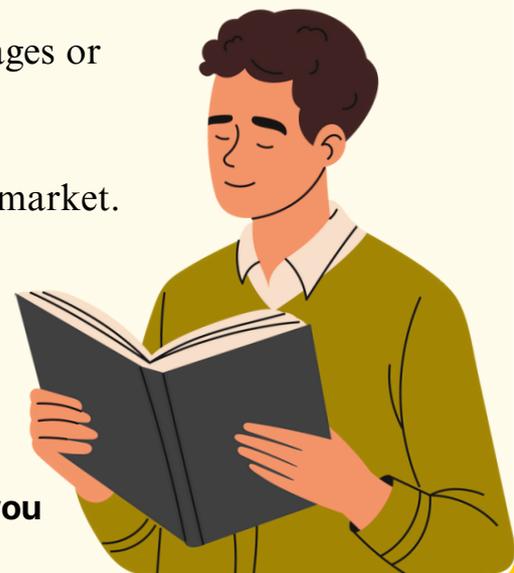

Have you done Self Introspection about your Preparation?

- I Have Notes, But I Can't Write good answers
- I have No Clarity on Theme-Wise Preparation
- My answers are evaluated in a very generic way and no One Tracks my Progress
- I have no clue how to manage Ethics, Essay, GS 1-2-3-4 together
- I have no dedicated mentor, I just have general advises from seniors

Have you ever felt this while Preparing for Prelims

- I am Becoming PDF collector - I have downloaded everything from Telegram but now What to read?
- I mark random questions right and obvious question wrong this makes Prelims a Lottery game for me.
- Fear of CSAT is haunting me- Do I need to prefer Passages or should I practice questions on Permutation?
- I am Stuck Between too many Test Series floating in the market.
- I have No dedicated schedule or timeline to structure my preparation.

Do you relate with some of these questions?

If yes then The Parth Saarthi UPSC Mentorship Program is for you

HOW YOUR UPCOMING 15 MONTHS WILL LOOK LIKE?

Phase 1: Mains Foundation Building (March – May)

This phase builds a strong conceptual base for Mains while keeping Prelims readiness intact. Focus is on NCERT-based GS preparation, clarity in GS 1–4 and Ethics, basic answer-writing skills, and regular current affairs from a Mains perspective.

Phase 2: Mains Core Content Completion (June – August)

The core Mains syllabus is completed using standard reference books for GS papers. Students practice daily answer writing, begin structured essay preparation, and take topic-wise tests with detailed feedback to strengthen content and presentation.

Phase 3: Mains Value Addition (September – November)

This phase deepens understanding and improves exam maturity through advanced answer writing, ethics case studies, essay refinement, and full-length Mains tests. Emphasis is placed on value addition using data, reports, examples, and interlinkages across GS papers.

Phase 4: Prelims Basics & Transition (December – January)

Preparation shifts decisively toward Prelims while retaining conceptual depth built during Mains. Students revise core subjects in a Prelims-oriented manner, consolidate NCERTs and standard books, start test series, and develop short notes using PYQs and MCQ analysis.

Phase 5: Prelims Intensive Practice (February – March)

This phase focuses on improving accuracy and speed through high-volume MCQ practice and regular mock tests. Detailed test analysis, error tracking, and focused revision of weak areas help build consistency.

Phase 6: Prelims Ready (April – May)

The final phase is dedicated to multiple revisions, frequent mock tests, and polishing elimination strategies. Students focus on factual recall, tricky areas, and exam temperament to enter Prelims confident, calm, and fully prepared.

WHAT OUR STUDENTS SAY...

Parth Sarathi Mentorship Program boosted my confidence and kept me positive throughout my UPSC CSE journey. The Mentorship sessions helped clear even the smallest doubts, while daily answer writing removed my fear of mains. The Mentor's constant availability and calm supportive guidance kept my preparation focused and on track.
Dr. Riya

Thanks for an initiative of Parth Sarathi Mentorship programme..
Before joining Parth Sarathi mentorship, I followed the myth of this so called UPSC market, that everything under the sun is important. This made my study tough and unstructured. The guidance of assigned mentors, structured coverage of syllabus, reduce excess burden. It helped to find weak area and niche subjects to focus on.
To stay disciplined and consistent, Parth Sarathi is helping a lot to me.
Time meetings with mentors and session with Tanu Mam, check how many miles are covered and how much to cover further.
With regards,
Ayushi
